■ P+P advised hotel management platform apaleo on financing round

The Munich-based startup apaleo successfully completed its first financing round.

apaleo offers an open cloud platform to empower hotels and hospitality companies to instantly connect third party software and apps of their choice. The software ecosystem is therefore based on an open API (application programming interface).

The startup was founded in January 2017 and has already 15 employees. A newly founded business angel group called “apaAngels” is supporting the firm.

P+P Pöllath + Partners advised apaleo comprehensively on the financing round with the following team:

- Michael Inhester (Partner, Munich)
- Adalbert Makos (Senior Associate, Munich).
