POELLATH advises the management of SCHOCK GmbH on sale to investor Triton

POELLATH advised the management of SCHOCK GmbH, one of the world's leading suppliers of quartz composite kitchen sinks, on the sale to the investment firm Triton. Details of the transaction and the purchase price were not disclosed.

Based in Regen (Bavaria, Germany), SCHOCK GmbH is the inventor of the technology used in the manufacture of quartz composite kitchen sinks. Its product portfolio includes kitchen sinks in over 200 models and 40 colors, as well as accessories and faucets. The company employs approximately 500 people and currently holds about 130 patents. Recently, SCHOCK GmbH launched a new product line that is made from more than 99% natural, renewable or recycled raw materials.

Since its founding in 1997, the investment firm Triton has launched nine funds focusing on company investments in the industrial, services, consumer goods and healthcare sectors. With this acquisition, Triton intends to strengthen SCHOCK GmbH's core business and further promote its international growth.

POELLATH advised the management of SCHOCK GmbH within the context of the sale with the following Munich team:

- Dr. Benedikt Hohaus (partner, lead, M&A/private equity/ management participation)
- Dr. Tim Kaufhold (partner, M&A)
- Johanna Scherk (associate, M&A/private equity/management participation)
