POELLATH advises Yabeo on EUR 23 million Series C financing round for Smart Reporting

Smart Reporting has successfully closed a EUR 23 million Series C financing round. New investors are TVM Capital (“TVM”) as lead investor and Bayern Kapital. The existing investors are also participating in the financing round.

Smart Reporting, founded in 2014 by Wieland Sommer, has established itself as a leading provider of documentation software in the medical sector. The company is headquartered in Munich and its goal is to simplify manual and repetitive processes in medical documentation while improving quality and data standardization. The medical documentation software developed by Smart Reporting is distributed worldwide by leading technology and device manufacturers and has established itself as the standard in the industry. Through strategic partnerships and availability of the software in seven languages, Smart Reporting has gained market access in the core markets of healthcare IT.

Yabeo is an early-stage investor with alternative fund structures for every type of alternative investor. Yabeo manages EUR 250 million in assets and supports an average of five investments per year.
