POELLATH advises shareholders and management of Checkmk on PSG Equity investment

Checkmk GmbH (“Checkmk”), a leading German provider of IT infrastructure monitoring, announced the strategic investment from PSG Equity (“PSG”). The strategic partnership will strengthen Checkmk’s research and development efforts and accelerate the expansion of its international presence. POELLATH provided comprehensive legal and tax advice to the shareholders and management of Checkmk in connection with the transaction.

Since its founding in 2007, Munich-based Checkmk has become a leading provider of IT monitoring. The company offers powerful software that allows organizations to efficiently monitor their IT infrastructures and ensure high availability. The company provides monitoring solutions for cloud, hybrid and data center infrastructures, as well as for modern containers and dynamic workloads, and these can be seamlessly integrated into companies’ key IT tools. Worldwide, 4,000 customers in over 70 countries rely on Checkmk to maximize the availability of their IT systems, avoid outages and shorten time-to-resolution.

PSG is a leading private equity firm that partners with software and technology-based services companies to accelerate their international growth.

POELLATH advised the shareholders and management on all legal and tax matters related to the transaction with the following team across all locations:
